

Third Sunday in Advent
December 10/11, 2011

M & M's

The simplest of scripts may see the writer use an attention getter at the very beginning of the message or story. I may be doing that in just mentioning it, but also may at the end "spin off" from it?

The schedule of Masses and Confessions on the back of this page allow you to plan for festive Christmas worship and hopefully enhance the value of celebrating the sacrament of reconciliation. I repeatedly mention that I would not be a priest without regularity celebrating BOTH sacraments (oops...not just regularity with Sunday Mass - always). Find it hard to confess a sin...sometimes repeatedly? You will find it impossible to comprehend Christ's forgiveness once we ASK for it.

And be attentive for our upcoming new parish directory. Quality portrait company coming in April and May. Rated the best from area parishes!

And is Christmas enough of an attention getter...in the right manner? PREPARE.

Fr. Raymond Cotter

In previous years, I have noted an invitation to send a Christmas card or note to my niece and godchild in the convent. Sr. Virginia Joy and her community who celebrate Christmas with a joyful spirit beyond our experiences. You can be a part of their welcoming of Christ with your prayer intentions and yes, maybe a remark about her "odd uncle". ABSOLUTELY NO GIFTS- KEEPING WITH THEIR LIFESTYLE of "laying down their lives so that others might live". She will take her first three year vows in August of '12. (sistersoflife.org) She was given her religious name having entered the community with her grandmother's name, Virginia Cotter. She is the youngest of three children born to her parents, Tim and Mary Cotter, of Greenville, S.C. (yes, for those residents of Grawn, Tim would be my brother)

In reminding you of no gifts to me, you are welcome to make a donation* to the Sisters of Life or Madonna House (.org), the community of which I am an associate priest. The two communities are way ahead of me, as I already have way too much stuff!

Sr. Virginia Joy; St. Francis de Chantal Convent; 198 Hollywood Ave.; Bronx, NY 10465

*Check made out to either community can be given to me for forwarding, or can be included with a note to Sr. Virginia.

Third Sunday in Advent
December 10/11, 2011

M &M's

The simplest of scripts may see the writer use an attention getter at the very beginning of the message or story. I may be doing that in just mentioning it, but also may at the end "spin off" from it?

The schedule of Masses and Confessions on the back of this page allow you to plan for festive Christmas worship and hopefully enhance the value of celebrating the sacrament of reconciliation. I repeatedly mention that I would not be a priest without regularity celebrating BOTH sacraments (oops...not just regularity with Sunday Mass - always). Find it hard to confess a sin...sometimes repeatedly? You will find it impossible to comprehend Christ's forgiveness once we ASK for it.

And be attentive for our upcoming new parish directory. Quality portrait company coming in April and May. Rated the best from area parishes!.

And is Christmas enough of an attention getter...in the right manner? PREPARE.

Fr. Raymond Cotter

In previous years, I have noted an invitation to send a Christmas card or note to my niece and godchild in the convent. Sr. Virginia Joy and her community who celebrate Christmas with a joyful spirit beyond our experiences. You can be a part of their welcoming of Christ with your prayer intentions and yes, maybe a remark about her "odd uncle". ABSOLUTELY NO GIFTS- KEEPING WITH THEIR LIFESTYLE of "laying down their lives so that others might live". She will take her first three year vows in August of '12. (sistersoflife.org) She was given her religious name having entered the community with her grandmother's name, Virginia Cotter. She is the youngest of three children born to her parents, Tim and Mary Cotter, of Greenville, S.C. (yes, for those residents of Grawn, Tim would be my brother)

In reminding you of no gifts to me, you are welcome to make a donation* to the Sisters of Life or Madonna House (.org), the community of which I am an associate priest. The two communities are way ahead of me, as I already have way too much stuff!

Sr. Virginia Joy; St. Francis de Chantal Convent; 198 Hollywood Ave.; Bronx, NY 10465

*Check made out to either community can be given to me for forwarding, or can be included with a note to Sr. Virginia.